A WAIL FROM THE THUNDER.

Victory for the Liberals in England—Decided Change in the British Parliament—Ministerial Majority Overcome.

London, April 2.—The Times, in a leading article on the result of the polling yesterday, says: The conservatives must admit very grave discouragement. The balance of gains and losses on the whole is decidedly in favor of the liberals, and it is obvious, if the tide of success flows as steadily as it did yesterday in favor of the opposition, the whole ministerial majority of 1874 will have melted away. This is more ominous for the ministry, because it is acknowledged that a loss of several seats in Scotland and Ireland, certainly a dozen, and perhaps more, is certain.

English Politics.

London, April 1.—There will be polling in seventy-six constituencies to-day and nominations in forty-eight.

The Standard, conservative organ, says: Minor defeats are likely as not to be succeeded by important victories in the elections that are to follow.

The Telegraph (liberal), says: No such sweeping change is manifested as that which struck down the great party in 1874. The result cannot be predicted from one day's polling.

The Pall Mall Gazette admits the government is defeated. The number of votes cast thus far aggregate 345,568 liberal, and 231,370 Tory.

In all sixty-four members were chosen to-day, mostly re-elections, among them the Marquis of Hartington, elected at the polls which were opened in ordinary boroughs to-day. Bazzard, liberal for Stamford, liberal gain; Sir W. Fletcher, conservative for Horsham, conservative gain; J. Rankin, conservative for Cornminster, conservative gain.

London, April 2.—Six more liberal gains are reported, some by large majorities. The liberal vote so far is 720,000, and the Tory vote 521,000; an increase for the liberal over the last election of 154,000, and for the Tories 55,000.

The Next Ministry.

Manchester, April 2.—A London correspondent says: A strange idea prevails, even in well informed quarters, that the queen will send for Lord Hartington instead of Lord Granville. It may be taken as absolutely certain that she will not summon Gladstone. A ministry formed by Lord Granville would certainly include Gladstone, but Lord Hartington, not Gladstone, would lead the house of commons if the liberal majority should fall below twelve or fifteen. The next parliament will probably be very short lived.

Live Stock Swept Away.

Constantinople, April 3.—Terrible distress prevails in Asia Minor. Cattle, sheep and goats are being carried off in large numbers by disease, and the country between Angora and Ismael is becoming a desert.

Down With the Cubans.

Madrid, Spain, April 3.—The government during March provided the captain general with $90,000,000 for suppressing insurrection.

Every shade of opposition in the cortes is anxiously watching Cuban affairs.

Fiat Justitia, Ruat Caelum.

Constantinople, April 3.—The delay in regard to the sentence of the assassin of the Russian Colonel Commeroff, causes indignation. The Russian representative threatens to quit Constantinople, if justice is not speedily done.

The Catholics Increasing.

Rome, April 2.—The pope is disposed to accede to the wishes of the archbishop of Baltimore, for a larger increase of church accommodations, in consequence of the number of persons disposed to join the church, and for other special powers to facilitate their reception.

The Ills of Cuba.

Havana, April 3.—Drought prevailed over three months in most of the fertile portions of Cuba and has done immense damage. The tobacco crop in Vuelta Abajo is almost destroyed and the plantations are unusually exposed to fire. Luckily fires have been comparatively few. The estimated sugar crop will not exceed 400,000 tons.

Insurrection in the eastern part of the island languishes, but robbery and vagrancy increase fearfully.

The Tentons are Coming.

Berlin, April 3.—Migration to the United States is again on the increase, and extensive preparations therefor are being made in every part of Germany.

Bennett's Horse Second.

London, April 3.—The Surrey open steeple-chase race was won by Bacchus; Muscatine second, and Hop Bloom third. Five started.

Public Debt Statement.

Washington, April 3.—The debt statement shows a decrease of the public debt for March of $14,719,397; cash in the treasury, $201,106,983; gold certificates, $8,855,500; silver certificates, $11,289,920; certificates of deposit outstanding, $8,889,000; refunding certificates, $1,830,450; legal tenders outstanding, $340,681,016; fractional currency outstanding, $15,625,297.

Washington, April 3.—The treasury department purchased 315,000 ounces of silver for the Philadelphia and San Francisco mints to-day.

The coinage at the United States mint was $7,475,000, of which 2,350,000 were silver dollars.

Tilden Delegates for Nebraska.

Chicago, April 3.—A Columbus, Nebraska, special states that the democratic state convention has elected Dr. Geo. L. Miller, J. Sterling Morton, J. E. North, J. W. Pollock, R. S. Maloney and F. A. Herman, all Tilden men, to the convention at Cincinnati. The platform is hard money. Adjourned.

As a Matter of Course.

Des Moines, April 3.—Ninety-seven, of the one hundred and seven delegates comprising the Polk county convention, have been instructed for Blaine. The Polk county delegates, twenty-one in number, to the state convention, will be instructed to vote for Blaine.

A Good Paying Road.

Boston, April 3.—The directors of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad yesterday declared a stock dividend of 20 per cent, and an extra cash dividend of 14 per cent on the present capital, payable April 10.

From Old Kentucky.

Louisville, April 3.—Both branches of the assembly passed the bill ensuring privacy of execution of criminals.

Newcomb, Buchanan & Co., distillers, who suspended two years ago, owing $1,600,000, completed the payment of all their old debts with interest, to-day.

Restoring Old Wages.

Cincinnati, April 3.—The Pan Handle railroad restores the rates of wages prevalent and prior to 1877.

Wages Being Increased.

New York, April 2.—Many branches of business to-day advanced wages 25 to 50 cents per day.

Longshoremen have struck against non-unionists.

Boiler Explosion.

Buffalo, April 2.—Supt. Kammerer was burned and three men were severely hurt by the explosion of the boiler in Childs' steam forge. The building was demolished.

Kansas for Blaine.

Chicago, April 2.—A Topeka dispatch says that Blaine will receive the Kansas vote in the republican convention.

Disgusted, of Course.

New York, April 1.—De Lesseps sailed for Europe to-day.

Preparing to Bolt.

Washington, April 2.—Prominent republicans here have been aware for some weeks that a movement is on foot to make a second republican nomination in case Grant is successful at Chicago. The matter has progressed so far as to make such result certain. Thus far the principal work in this direction has been done in Massachusetts, New York and Missouri.

What Smith Says.

Chicago, April 2.—The Times editorially, referring to a Toronto dispatch, says: "Prof. Goldwin Smith is opposed to a third term. He thinks the re-election of a civilian for administrative ability, might not be objectionable, but the re-election of a soldier, not for administrative ability but as a 'strong man' is, in his view of the case, a dangerous innovation. He believes third terms are in favor of presidency for life, which, after long discussion of election, might pass into dynastism with greater ease than most people imagine."

They are Objectionable.

New York, April 2.—The Sun's Washington special says the Pacific slope congressmen are greatly dissatisfied with the nomination of a commission to negotiate a new treaty with China for the restriction of Chinese immigration. The Pacific slope men say that no real attempt to modify the treaty has been made. The personnel of the proposed commission as well as the commission plan, is objectionable to the California members.

Futile Attempt to Rescue a Prisoner.

Denver, April 2.—A special from Las Vegas, N. M., dated April 1, says: This evening two desperadoes, David Rudabagh and John Allen, entered the jail, shot and fatally wounded the jailor and attempted to rescue Webb, a prisoner under a death sentence for murder. The rescuers were scared off before accomplishing their purpose. A posse is in pursuit, and if captured, they will certainly be lynched.

WELL POSTED.

MEARS ON THE UTE QUESTION.

He Tells What He Knows of the Treaty, Ouray and His Outfit—Doings of Douglas—Jack's New Position.

Denver, April 2.—Otto Mears was interviewed by the Denver Republican to the following effect:

Mr. Mears said that, in his opinion, the bill now before congress for the removal of the Utes from their present reservation would pass within two weeks, and being signed by the president, immediately become a law. Although the feeling in the east, and especially in official circles, was decidedly in favor of the Indians, he based his opinion on the passage of the bill on the Herculean efforts of Senator Hill and Congressman Belford, backed by the steady influence of Secretary Schurz. Indeed, to the two members of the Colorado delegation just mentioned, the entire credit of the removal is due, as they are ceaseless and untiring in their efforts.

The bill will pass, he said, with certain amendments, and so amended will be thoroughly satisfactory to the Indians. The principal of these amendments is the cutting down of the pensions of Mrs. Meeker, Josephine and Mrs. Price to $500 a year, instead of the thousand originally proposed, and on the death of any of these pensioners the annuities were to succeed to their children, if any, and cease with their death.

By the bill, when passed, the Uncompahgre Utes will be moved to the west of the Grand river, occupying land in Utah and Colorado; the White river Utes to the Uinta agency, in Utah, and the Southern Utes to the La Plata and other streams in Colorado and New Mexico. Ouray and his entire delegation of Indians, consisting of sixteen besides himself and wife, Chipeta, are perfectly satisfied with the treaty, and believe that the balance of the tribe will be also. Their influence will be very large, and as certainly exercised in the right direction.

While in Washington Ouray assumed the garb of civilization, cut in the latest fashion; ordered a plug hat from Knox, the New York hatter, size 7 1/2, and daily promenaded in Pennsylvania avenue, the wonder and idol of the small boy, the terror of the tender girl, and the object of interest to the sentimental. He also purchased a handsome baby carriage for one of his nieces, a set of silver-plated ware, made especially to order, at a cost of $155. A common miner's tin plate was furnished as a pattern, and plates and saucers were formed exactly after this model. He furthermore procured some carpets and two chandeliers to hold oil lamps, intended for the new residence he will erect at his new quarters, and with his wife spent much of his time pricing and sampling various goods and articles.

Coming west, Mr. Mears, accompanied by Ouray and two other Indians of the delegation, went down to Fort Leavenworth to see Douglas. The meeting between Ouray and the prisoner was quite familiar and friendly. Douglas stands in terrible dread of hanging, and says that his two attempts at escape were made solely for the purpose of being shot. He believes that the government intends to kill him, and all that worries him is the method. He blames no one but himself for the iron and chains which at present encumber him, and speaks of the kind treatment he has received in the highest terms. Ouray told him that he would have a fair trial, and that resulted so would his liberty or punishment follow.

Mr. Mears left the old chief and his party at Pueblo yesterday—they proceeding directly on the south-bound train, and Mr. M. coming north. The Indians are accompanied by an escort of twenty soldiers, which will be increased to forty-five men at Alamosa, who will go directly to the agency, and several more companies sent in immediately thereafter. At La Junta, yesterday, four of the Southern Utes, in charge of Col. Page and Interpreter Burns, left for Santa Fe, and will proceed thence to their agency. Mr. W. H. Berry, special agent from the interior department, is with the main band, and Mr. Mears leaves to-morrow morning and will join them on the road between Alamosa and Saguache.

There is one item which must not be forgotten, and that is that Jack—tricky, troublesome Jack—is a chief of police at the new agency. Comment is unnecessary.

Passengers by Hand-Car.

New Orleans, April 2.—A Galveston News special from Minola, Texas, says: The very heavy rains have caused the river to rise, and one hundred and fifty feet of the embankment on Buck creek, between here and Tyler, have been washed away. Passengers came through and returned by hand-car.

HANGMAN'S DAY.

Double Execution in Kentucky.

Louisville, April 2.—Robert Anderson (white), for wife murder, Charles Webster (colored), for the rape of a child, were hanged here this morning. The execution was private.

He Confessed and Was Hung.

Windsor, Vt., April 2.—Edward Tatro was hanged here to-day for the murder of Mrs. Butler.

Tatro, in addressing the audience and confessing his crime, pointed often at Butler, husband of the murdered woman, and speaking more directly at him, accused him of instigating the crime and of swearing falsely, and then in pitiful accents, asked forgiveness of God, again and again.

A Wife Murderer Hanged.

Washington, April 2.—James M. Y. Stone, colored, was hanged to-day for the murder of his wife last October. He was formerly janitor in the New York associated press office.

His head was completely severed from his shoulders by the five-foot drop. The affair was horrible in the extreme. When the head was picked up the lips moved as if to speak.

The Pottowattomies.

New York, April 2.—The New York Sun publishes a long sensational story about forty-one Pottowattomies who in 1861 occupied lands in Kansas. In 1862 they were in Texas hunting, and were attacked by Texas rangers and driven to Mexico. They remained there until 1874, when they returned to Kansas and found certain persons in possession of their lands. They then went to Washington and endeavored to interest Commissioner Hayt and Secretary Schurz in the matter, but failed. The report criticizes the Indian department very sharply, and charges that frauds have been committed against these Indians.

Murder in the Second Degree.

Bradford, Pa., April 2.—Robert Butler, tried for the murder of his brother Henry on October 7th, has been convicted of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to eight years solitary confinement in the Western Pennsylvania penitentiary.

An Oil Town Singed.

Bradford, Penna., April 2.—Eighteen buildings, including the academy of music and the Titusville house, on Main street and Webster, burned to-day. Loss, $150,000; insured. It started in Sawyer's saloon. Cooney & Holmes' liquor store, Wright's grocery, the Washington house, Hanlan's hotel, Michael's clothing store are among the burned. James Williams, of Dunkirk, was burned to death.

A Horrible Case.

Milwaukee, April 2.—At the preliminary examination of Joseph Hanich, for incest with his sister, 10 years of age, it was shown that they had occupied the same berth in the ship on the way over from Bohemia, and that he had since lived with her, part of the time representing himself as her husband. One of the children died, and one, about a year old, is living. Hanich was remanded to jail for trial.

A Big Suit.

San Francisco, April 2.—Rodman M. Price, ex-governor of New Jersey, has brought suit in the superior court against Squire P. Dewey, survivor of the firm of Theodore Payne & Co., to recover one million dollars, alleged to be due from the defendant as plaintiff's agent. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff, in the early days of San Francisco, owned several pieces of valuable real estate in the city, which he entrusted to Erasmus D. Keyes, captain U. S. A., as agent; that Keyes entered into a fraudulent conspiracy with Edmund Scott and defendant to defraud the plaintiff of the property in question. Scott died in 1873, and accounting is asked from the defendant for the income and proceeds of all sales and conveyances held by defendant, and judgment for one million and costs.

The Colorado Railroad War.

Denver, April 2.—The protracted litigation between the Denver & Rio Grande railway company and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and the Pueblo & Arkansas Valley companies has been finally ended by entry here of a decree in the case made last week by Judge Miller. The Denver & Rio Grande company has taken possession of the Leadville line and is pressing the work of completion with great vigor. That line will be completed to Leadville in about sixty days. By the decree the lease of the constructed road to the Atchison company is cancelled and the receiver discharged and ordered to turn it back to the Denver & Rio Grande company. This will be done early next week. The line is in excellent condition and doing a large and profitable business. The San Juan extension is completed to Conejos, and 2,000 men are at work thereon. These extensions tap the most valuable mineral sections of Colorado, and guarantee a large increase of traffic.

From New Mexico.

The New Mexican correspondence of the Denver Tribune is very interesting of late. Here follow two dispatches:

Santa Fe, N. M., April 1.—On the 22d of March a small raiding party of Apaches captured a courier, a soldier of the Ninth cavalry, carrying dispatches from Fort Craig to Capt. Hooker's battalion or the Ninth cavalry, in the San Mateo mountains, and killed him. They then attacked a small Mexican village—San Jose—about seventeen miles from the Rio Grande, but two soldiers of the Ninth cavalry and several Mexicans went out and drove them off, one soldier and one Mexican being killed in the affair.

Santa Fe, N. M., April 1.—At Albuquerque, New Mexico, last evening, Guillermo Biscara, a wagon-master of Otero, Sellar & Co's train, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a pistol.

On the same evening two fair but frail damsels endeavored to put an end to their existence by taking morphine. Medical assistance was procured, and they are still in the land of the living. An extended debauch is supposed to have been the cause.

The Russians Happy.

St. Petersburg, April 2.—The announcement of the success of the liberals in England has produced considerable satisfaction in political circles here.

The now indefinite postponement of Gen. Skobloff's departure, together with the belief that no actual expedition to Turkestan will be undertaken this year, as well as the despatch of a Russian division to Kuldja, are regarded as significant of an indecision existing in Russian ministerial circles, probably in view of the possible results to be obtained by the ultimate success of the English liberals.
